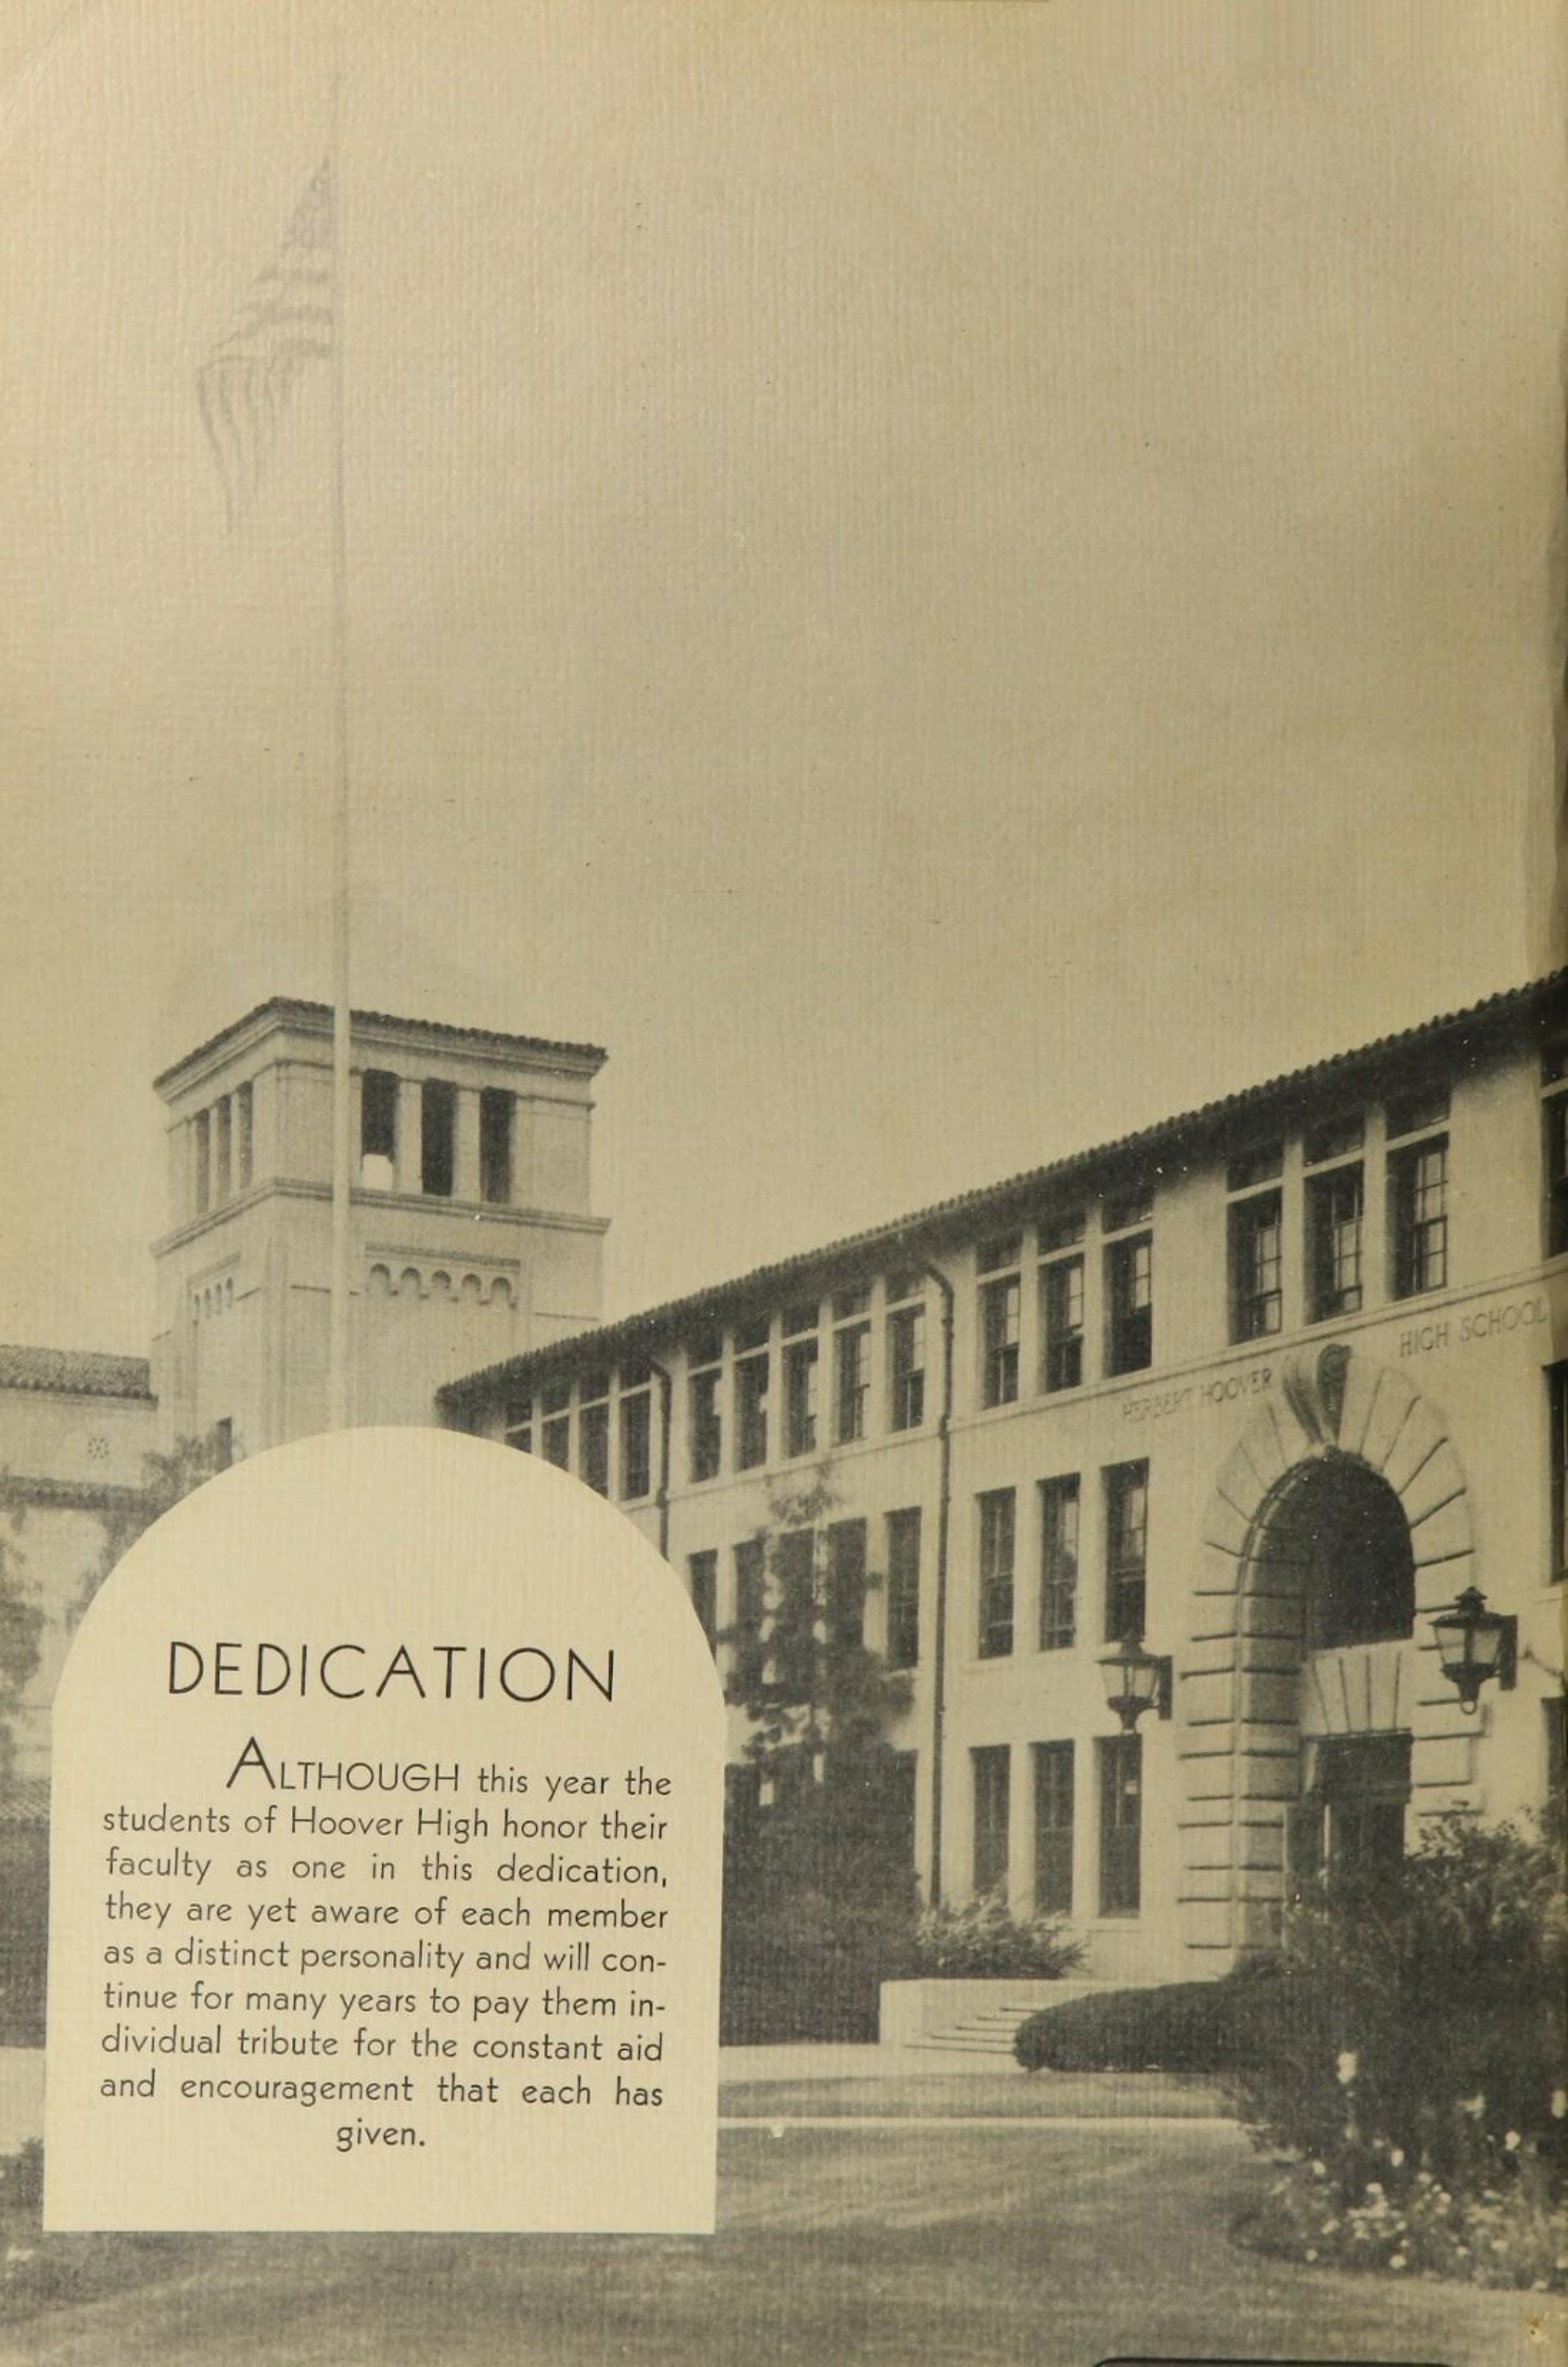
THEME

BECAUSE the problem of Progress belongs essentially to the youth of today, and because advancement in all fields of learning will be made by those of us who are now young, we, the students of Herbert Hoover High School, have chosen for the theme of this annual,

PROGRESS



DEDICATION

ALTHOUGH this year the students of Hoover High honor their faculty as one in this dedication, they are yet aware of each member as a distinct personality and will continue for many years to pay them individual tribute for the constant aid and encouragement that each has given.

ADMINISTRATION

COORDINATING and CONSTRUCTIVE efforts of both faculty and students have been necessary to make Hoover Senior High School what it is today. It is easy for each student of this high school to see how necessary it is for him to have an active part in establishing new standards and upholding the traditions of the school. It is not easy, however, for you to feel that you are an important part of a whole nation of people. It is, nevertheless, true that your city, your state and your country must depend upon the character and efforts of its people for progress and development.

As you go out from this school as graduates, you will realize that the hand of time is leveling out and spreading work and responsibility as well as leisure and luxury.

You have been taught much in recent years of how to concentrate your efforts to succeed in life in some vocation and to use your leisure time to improve your bodies and perfect yourselves, but not enough has been said or taught of the value and necessity of sacrificial service to others.

In life you will find organizations of men and women playing an ever-increasing popular and important part, and you will have to choose the groups in which you wish to work. There are those groups which are entirely festival and those which are directed toward some substantial accomplishment. May you choose wisely and invest your education and personality in those which have an unselfish, constructive purpose and which require sacrificial service; for no matter how much you may wish to improve yourselves, it is through sacrifice and service that character is built. While you are seeking happiness for yourself, remember that nothing is so necessary to happiness as strength of character, for it is only the strong man or woman who can meet adversity and success alike with serenity, hopefulness and faith in the future.

I would leave this word with you. Start thinking and planning now for a life of worthwhile service. It is my hope to see you in future as an important spoke in the revolving wheel of some organization whose load is a program of progress and constructive value to the nation.

FEBRUARY CLASS OF 1937

WHEN THE FEBRUARY CLASS met during the spring term for senior B officers, they chose as president, Connie Fraser; as vice-president, Gordon Bennett; as secretary, Ed Carmichael; and as treasurer, Ralph Silverton. The most pressing business was, of course, the selection of rings and sweaters.

When, as senior A's, they returned in the fall, Bob Breitbard was chosen as president; Sarah Taylor was vice-president; and Jack Highley was elected as secretary-treasurer. The committees and cabinet were duly chosen to care for the myriad details necessary to a successfully conducted graduation.

The semester was a busy one, not only for the seniors, but for the others in the student body. As usual, the most exciting feature of the fall semester were the football games, made still more exciting, since this was Hoover's first season in the Coast League and there were many thrilling games at various coast schools.

Soon after the beginning of the term, a get-acquainted party, under the guidance of Mrs. Keyes and Cardinal Co-ed president, Nancy Marshall, was enjoyed by the new upper-class girls who were entertained by senior A girls.

On October thirty-first Hoover-San Diego students danced at Mission Beach after the big game. On November sixteenth play tickets were distributed for the "Mary's Ankle" production, successfully presented for two nights, December third and fourth, to capacity crowds. December second arrived and the senior class song competition was held. On January twelfth they had a grand time ditching in the snow at Pine Valley. Seniors and other student body members danced January twenty-second in the library at the A. S. B. ball, and the seniors again at their ball at the Casa de Manana on January twenty-eighth.

Sunday, January thirty-first, Vesper services were held at the First Baptist Church. On February second Tower Day exercises were attended by senior A's and B's.

These pleasant times culminated with the graduation exercises on February third at State College with Miss Phyllis Baldwin as valedictorian. Every senior felt truly satisfied that his last semester in school had been the happiest one of his high school career.

CLASS SONG

FAREWELL TO ALMA MATER

Words and Music by Philip Vander Horck

Farewell, Dear Hoover High!
Farewell, Comrades True!
We will forever keep
Memories of you!
Someday we'll come again;
Then we'll surely see
Still all your banners bright
Crowned with victory!

So with eager soul, as swift the seasons roll,
We will strive our goal to achieve,
And with loyal hand we'll always stand
By the school so grand we now must leave!

Though the day is near, our Alma Mater Dear,
When our service here will be through,
To the love we bore our comrades of yore
We will evermore be true!

Now to the future's store,
Love and hope and strife,
Forward from your doors we go,
Forward into life!
Happy our youth has been,
And in future days
Oft' we shall fondly sing
Alma Mater's praise.
(Alma Mater to be sung with the second chorus)

So we march along to Hoover's battle-song
And with voices strong sing her name!
We will live aright for Red and White
And will ever fight to bring her fame!

Though the day is near, our Alma Mater Dear,
When our service here will be through,
To the love we bore our comrades of yore
We will evermore be true!

JUNE CLASS OF 1937

WHEN THE JUNE '37 class met in September '36 as senior B's, as officers they elected: Bernie Carroll, president; Betty Forbes, vice-president; and Mary Wing, secretary-treasurer. In keen anticipation, the excited senior B's chose an attractive, differently-styled sweater and their rings, received awards Tower Day, and participated in a "sing-song."

When the class organized for a second time in the spring term, the new officers chosen were: President, Ray Adair; vice-president, Frank Bonham; and secretary-treasurer, Mary Wing.

The Monday following Easter vacation tickets for the senior A production, "The Bridal Chorus," were given out to the seniors. This particular senior A production was an entirely unprecedented and ambitious attempt in that it was presented most successfully for four nights to capacity audiences, April 7, 8, 9, and 10. The prime motive for this unusual attempt was the need for supplying additional funds necessary in the publication of a more ambitious issue of "Dias Cardinales."

No efforts were spared in attempting to make their last semester at Hoover one of the happiest and most memorable times of their school career for the senior A's. With that in mind the committees and cabinet members were selected. The first efforts, those in behalf of the senior play, succeeded admirably.

On April sixteenth the A. S. B. ball took place in the school library. Later, April twenty-seventh, came Open House.

A new event was the senior A, senior B athletic competition called Field Day, held in May.

May twenty-eighth the seniors ditched at Pine Valley; June tenth the ball took place at Hotel del Coronado; June thirteenth, Vesper services; June fifteenth, Tower Day; and, at last, a beautiful graduation in the Ford Bowl on June sixteenth. The class orators were: Ruby Reid, Peggy Fay, and John Jacobsen.

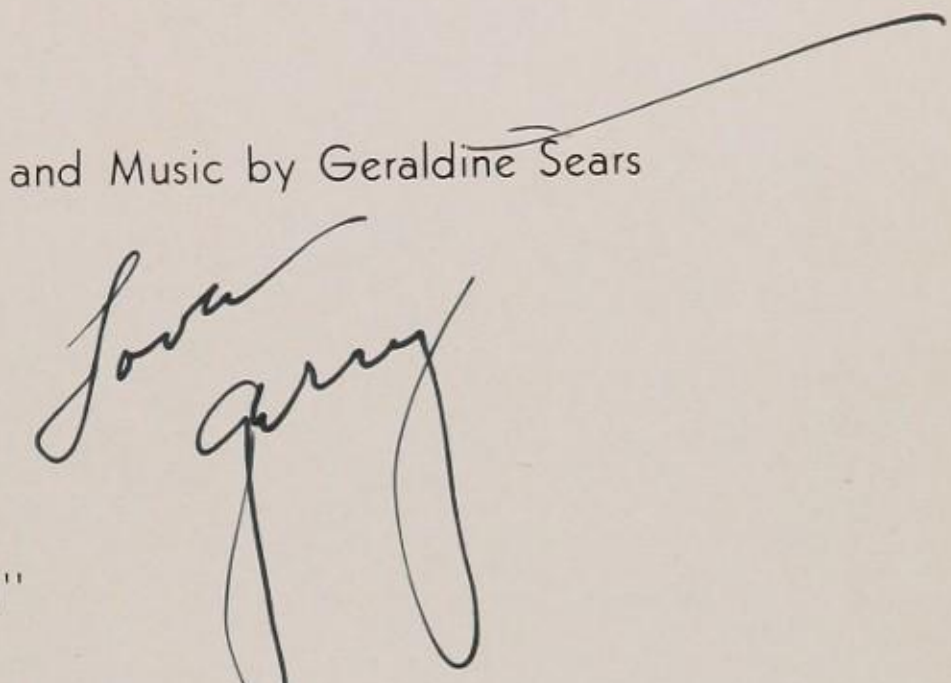
CLASS SONG

Words and Music by Geraldine Sears



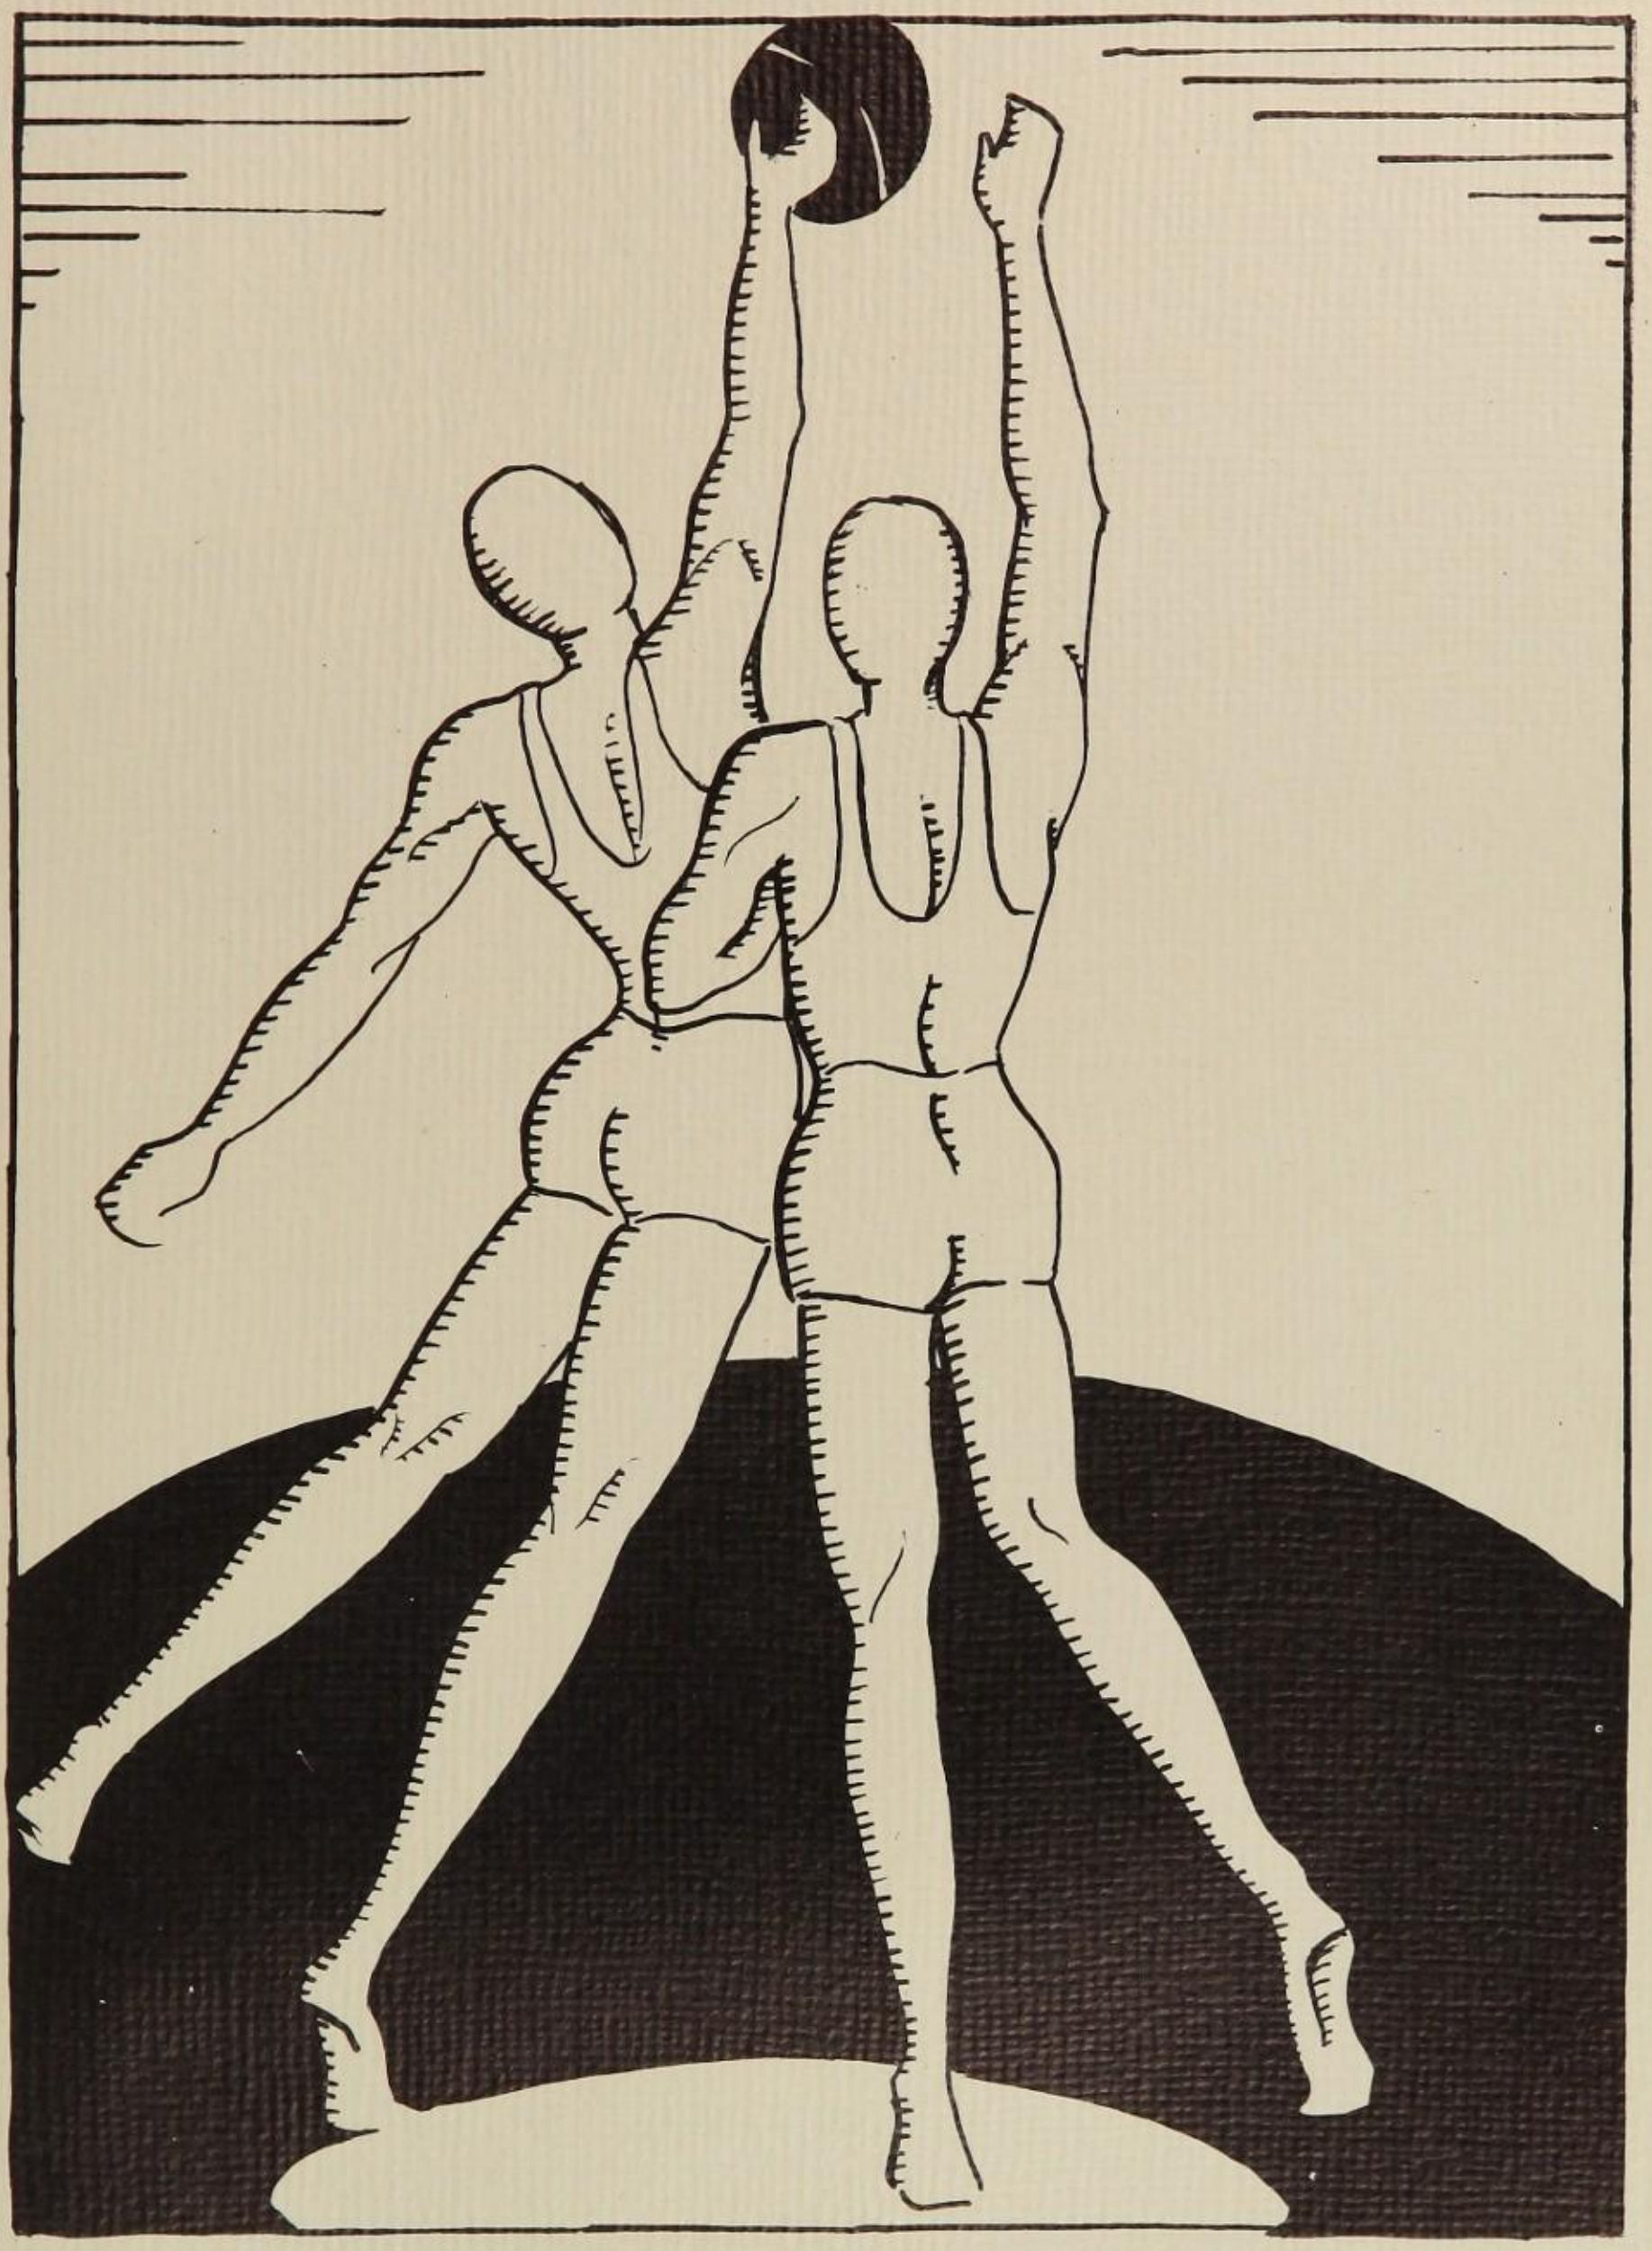
"HOOVER ADIEU"

The happy days we've spent with you
Are closing, Hoover High;
And so with heavy heart we say
To you our last goodbye.
But ever in our mem'ries,
Your ideals stand enshrined—
The joys we've shared within your walls
We nevermore shall find.
And to you dear Alma Mater
We bid fond adieu—
We shall forever treasure
Our happiness with you.

CHORUS:

Dear Hoover High we bid adieu,
We'll strive to be sincere to you;
And colors bright of red and white
Shall ever be our guiding light!
Dear Hoover High, adieu.

SENIOR AUTOGRAPHS



SPORTS

Yours Sincerely
Elizabeth Greenwood
1929

Fourth row: Hannah, Smith, Ricketts, McDaniels, Siraton, Lester, Watters, Larsen, Butcher, Clark.

FOOTBALL

THE 1936 FOOTBALL season found the Cardinal football team a member of the widely known Coast League, an added prestige to the Hoover team since the League consists only of the schools of the highest caliber in Southern California. Though the league championship was not within reach during the season, crowds unprecedented in size and enthusiasm attended the home skirmishes.

The next season's players will be hard pressed to show themselves to be as mighty in spirit and fight as those of the 1936 season who abounded in enthusiasm and earnest endeavor, and who practiced diligently that in enthusiasm and earnest endeavor, and who practiced diligently.

They gave the needed inspiration often when things looked darkest, and their departure will be a real loss. They are: Oscar Gibson, Captain Don Trimble, Joe Fitzpatrick, Bob Brietbard, Dick Longtin, and all the other lettermen and non-lettermen who leave to continue in new undertakings.

Coaches John Perry, Lawrence Carr, and Wofford Caldwell whose constant training and encouragement reshaped the team into the fine unit that it was, are all looking ahead with keen anticipation toward added achievements in the 1937 season.

First row: Hendel, Prusa, Woodbury, Mitchell, Longtin, Fitzenmeyer.
Second row: Eidemiller (Manager), Neil, Krutzsch, Coach Carr, Cummings, Fitzpatrick, Marchand (Manager).

BASKETBALL "A"

THE 1936-37 HOOVER VARSITY team began this season with only one returning letterman, Harold Prusa; consequently much coaching and shaping was the order. Prusa, with the Junior Varsity and the "B" substitutes of the previous season, constituted the new Varsity squad. In addition to a rigid schedule, sickness played a prominent part in slowing down the proceedings. However, a diligent attendance at practice during vacation proved a great aid.

Of the five players who later became the "regulars" of the team, not one had had previous playing experience with his teammates, a fact which contributed largely to the slow start of the season, since close co-operation between the players is of great importance. However, before the season had advanced very far, the improvement in the co-ordination between the players was clearly noticeable.

In the San Diego County Tournament, Hoover played a fifty-fifty draw, winning the Sweetwater game with a score of 29-27, and losing the St. Augustine game 16-22.

Likewise, in the Coast League skirmishes, the Hoover squad encountered more determined opponents and emerged from these frays with but one victory, from Santa Ana, yielding under the attacks of the other teams, and tying for fourth position in the Coast League.

First row: Carroll, Monsees, Hampton, Shepherd (Captain), Tazelaar ,Stuart.
Second row: Minor, Davis, Greville (Manager), Coach Carr, Edwards, Cormier.

BASKETBALL "B"

THE 1936-37 SQUAD OF "B's" is able to look back on a truly enviable season of victories, having sent numerous formidable squads of opponents down into defeat before a strong barrage of powerful playing. Their success may be attributed largely to the sincere and continued interest that they exhibited in the game, to their admirable sportsmanship, and to their unremitting practice, a factor which plays a large part in the perfection of any team.

At the beginning of the season, the squad was strengthened by the experience of three returning lettermen: John Shepherd, whose merits served in large measure to elect him captain of the squad; Charles Hampton, Ralph Monsees, and to complete the squad of nearly thirty boys, one almost unprecedented in size, came the "B" reserves, the Junior "B's", and the former "C's".

In the San Diego County Tournament the "B's" distinguished themselves by solidly filling out the schedule with four consecutive vcitories.

However, the opponents encountered by the "B's" in the Coast League games did not prove to be such a "snap". Despite the threats of these powerful opponents, the "B's" managed to come off very admirably, carrying off four victories out of five games, as well as the co-championship with Long Beach Poly.

Third row: Campbell, Stuart, Santos, J. W. Lewis, Berg, Kahle, Beckus, Captain Schaaf, Yakel, Aguirre, Meeker, Eidemiller, Cormier.

TRACK

ALTHOUGH TRACK is not a major sport at Hoover, its success during this season may warrant that it assume a position of major importance in the coming season because of its rising popularity. Many records were shattered and new ones established in the course of the past season, one of the most successful yet, with many boys renewing their interest in that sport.

There are three classes of teams in track events just as in other sports. Some of the contests which track teams take part in are: the mile race, the half-mile event, the one hundred, and the two hundred and twenty yard dashes, the high hurdling, the broad jump, the shot put, the discus throw, the high jump, and running on the relay team.

The relay team was the most successful, winning the Coast League championship, and bringing every meet to a close with a victory for the Cardinals. The boys who compose the team are: Clyde Yakel, John Finan, George Kahle, and Bob Beckus.

Clyde Yakel competed in the one hundred and the two hundred and twenty yar dashes; Captain Bob Beckus in the mile run; Bernie Carroll in the high hurdles; Al Cordray and Felix Aguirre in the high and broad jump; and Philip Krutzch in the shot put. All of these boys established new school records.

Second row: Brown, Oliver, Siraton, Mitchell, Bell, DeLauer, Kenmuir, Miller.
Third row: Coach Caldwell, Robbins, Neumeister, Lange, Ballinger, Monsees, Aguirre, Helm.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL has always stood high in the esteem of Hoover student rooters, and the 1937 season was no exception. Many of the games were thrillingly played, climaxing, in some instances, in scores of only one point difference.

The Hoover spring season started on March fifth when Hoover accomplished a 4-2 win over Glendale. The following day, playing the alumni, they were defeated by a score of 11-10.

During the Easter vacation the Hoover team entered the Pomona Invitational Tournament for the fifth consecutive year. Playing at that meet Hoover triumphed over Grossmont with a score of 3-2, and later against Fullerton, our boys scored twelve runs to their one. However, Hoover was finally stopped by Escondido in the third game, scoring one run to their two.

Playing in the league, Hoover placed fourth behind San Diego, Woodrow Wilson, and Alhambra. A 6-4 victory over Alhambra, a league leader, however, cinched the fourth place for the Cardinals ahead of Long Beach Poly and Santa Ana.

Ralph Monsees leads the club with a batting average of .400 and will undoubtedly be awarded the Todd-Kelly batting trophy in addition to being chosen to travel on an exhibition tour to Japan.

No discouragement seems to dim shining promises for next season, and doubtless larger turn-outs will greet the coming team.

GIRLS' SPORTS

DURING the past year, four new sports have been added to the number played by the Hoover girls in their gym classes. Last semester, under the supervision of Mrs. Mildred Stanley, hockey was taught in class and played after school as well. This semester forty-two girls formed a drill team as a part of their physical education training. Deck tennis, an interesting game to play when developed in the proper skill, was also taken up recently during gym periods and is being played with increasing popularity. Golf holds a place as an extra-curricular activity, and a team has been formed under the guidance of Algy Lambert, playing weekly at the Emerald Hills Golf Club.

Tumbling, under the instruction of Miss Geneva Upp, may be taken in place of the regular gym training. From among these girls in the tumbling classes are chosen those for the regular team to represent Hoover each year, togged in their sparkling red and white costumes, at the Hoover-San Diego game.

In addition to these four new sports there are those regularly played: basketball, baseball, speedball, volleyball, tennis, and paddle tennis. Each semester class teams compete in after-school games, one point being awarded to each girl playing and complying with attendance requirements. Points are awarded for basketball, baseball, volleyball, speedball, track, and swimming, and the girls who earn ten points receive a letter in athletics.

The girls who participate in after-school games are eligible to join the Girls' Athletic Association which is sponsored by Miss Geneva Upp, head of the girls' physical education department. The commissioner of girls' athletics, who is elected each semester by the students, automatically becomes president of the organization. This semester, under the leadership of Cecelia Markle, Corine Bailey, Frances Truax, Betty Gurney, and Ruth Gates, the group enjoyed a splash party, a horseback ride, a dance and a hike.

Mary Downs was commissioner of girls' athletics for the fall semester of 1936-'37. Instruction in the girls' physical education department is directed by: Miss Geneva Upp, Mrs. La Rue Williams, Mrs. Mildred Stanley, and Miss Lena Petersen.

FEBRUARY SENIOR PLAY

ON DECEMBER third and fourth, the February Senior dramatic production, "Mary's Ankle," was presented to two capacity houses, and enacted by an exceptionally capable cast. The play, pure farce, dealt with the efforts of a struggling young doctor and his friends in their attempts to obtain money from the doctor's crochety rich uncle.

The lead, Mary Jane Smith, possessing the ankle in question, was aptly handled by Connie Frazer. Young Doctor Hampton was portrayed by Arthur Slocum.

Members of the supporting cast were:

Gabby	Fred Shields
Stokes	Donel Abbott
Clementine	Joyce Taylor
Mrs. Merrivale	Alice Woudstra
Mrs. Burns	La Verne Usher
Expressman	Max Bauer
Steward	William Ward

Wilbea Jackson was in charge of the costuming, Saul Rabinowitz handled the advertising effectively, Patsy Hubbard was assistant to the director, and properties were cared for by June Reichers and Phyllis Day.

Scarcely ever is a play enacted by amateurs as well as this one, which the audiences found completely enjoyable. "Mary's Ankle" added another exceptional achievement to the list of those produced by C. Gerald Hasty.

JUNE SENIOR PLAY

BEING SELECTED for a major part in the "Bridal Chorus," June dramatic offering for senior A's, was deemed an unusual bit of good fortune, for the splendid play set a precedent in its run of four days, April 7, 8, 9, and 10. What is more, each night's capacity audiences keenly enjoyed the amusing production and music.

Effective advertising contributed greatly to the extended run. For several weeks preceding the play mysterious notices to the effect that a prominent Hoover couple was contemplating marriage kept everyone guessing what the notices were all about. The suspense was finally broken when one and all were told to see "Bridal Chorus" for details. Publicity was handled by Virginia Clark. Marjorie Cadman was assistant to the director; Florence Newmrak was play manager; Ed Granville was stage manager; Elizabeth Atwater and Dorothy Hubbard handled properties; Frances Truax, Betty Griffiths, and Peggy Heron were in charge of costumes; Nell Wing, tickets; printing, Mr. Robert I. Evans; posters, Mrs. Rosialee Funke; and the orchestra was under the direction of Dorothy Vahle.

The cast was as follows:

Kate Perry	Peggy Fay
Willie Gresham	Forrest Warren Jr.
Georgia Davis	Juanita Adkinson
J. R. Perry	James Lyle
Martha Jane Perry	Betty Forbes
Charlotte Wright	Wanda Kazmarek
Josephine Bennett	Katherine Hunter
Caroline Bell	Cora Meome Jones
Bishop Rathbone	Donald Major
Stew Gibson	Jack Edwards
Charlie Wood	Mark Alexander
Dave Grey	Joe Pranis
Dr. Scott	Charles Knapp
Ellis Bradley	Ray Adair

The production was staged by C. Gerald Hasty.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Second row: Murphy, Boyer, Pitts, Stash, Hendrix, Ray, Sperry, Voise, Van Etten, Currier.
Third row: Santoro, Hume, Geren, Pointer, Field, Waggoner, Luttmer, Summers, Smith, Staninger, Hopwood.
Fourth row: Carr, Hatch, Patterson, Roberge, Gemmell, Finley, Clary, Hurlbut, Mitchell, Hudson, Fincher, Adams.
Fifth row: Hurt, Skidmore, Morris, Kallander, Wetherell, Phelps, Cook, Clark, Acers, Payton, Seibert, Stebbins.
Sixth row: Duncan, Walsh, Lehner, Johnson, Johnson, Paulison, Drebert, Waterfield, Pranis, Foster, Settlemore, Rasberry.

SINGING A CAPELLA, a repertoire which includes a great variety of numbers, the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Myron B. Green, has become a well-known group much in demand.

At the beginning of the fall semester the club of fifty-five members was organized under Perry Lewis, president. She was assisted by Jeanne Couvrette, secretary-treasurer; Betty Bonham, head librarian; and Doris Swanson, assistant librarian. Beverly Virginia Clark was the publicity manager. During the fall semester the Girls' Glee Club sang for a Parent-Teachers' Association tea, a half-hour Parent-Teachers' Association radio broadcast over KGB, and at Hoover's Open House Night for their parents. The club had a prominent part in the traditional Christmas program last December.

Most of the club's engagements during the fall semester were sung at churches. The girls sang at the First Methodist-Episcopal Church, the San Diego Tabernacle, the Normal Heights Community Methodist Church, and the Scott Memorial Baptist Church. The club sang from the Hoover tower for the traditional Tower Day ceremony for the seniors.

An added feature for the spring semester in the Girls' Glee Club was a study of the history of music and music theory presented every Thursday by Beatrice D. Schnug, student of San Diego State Teachers' College.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

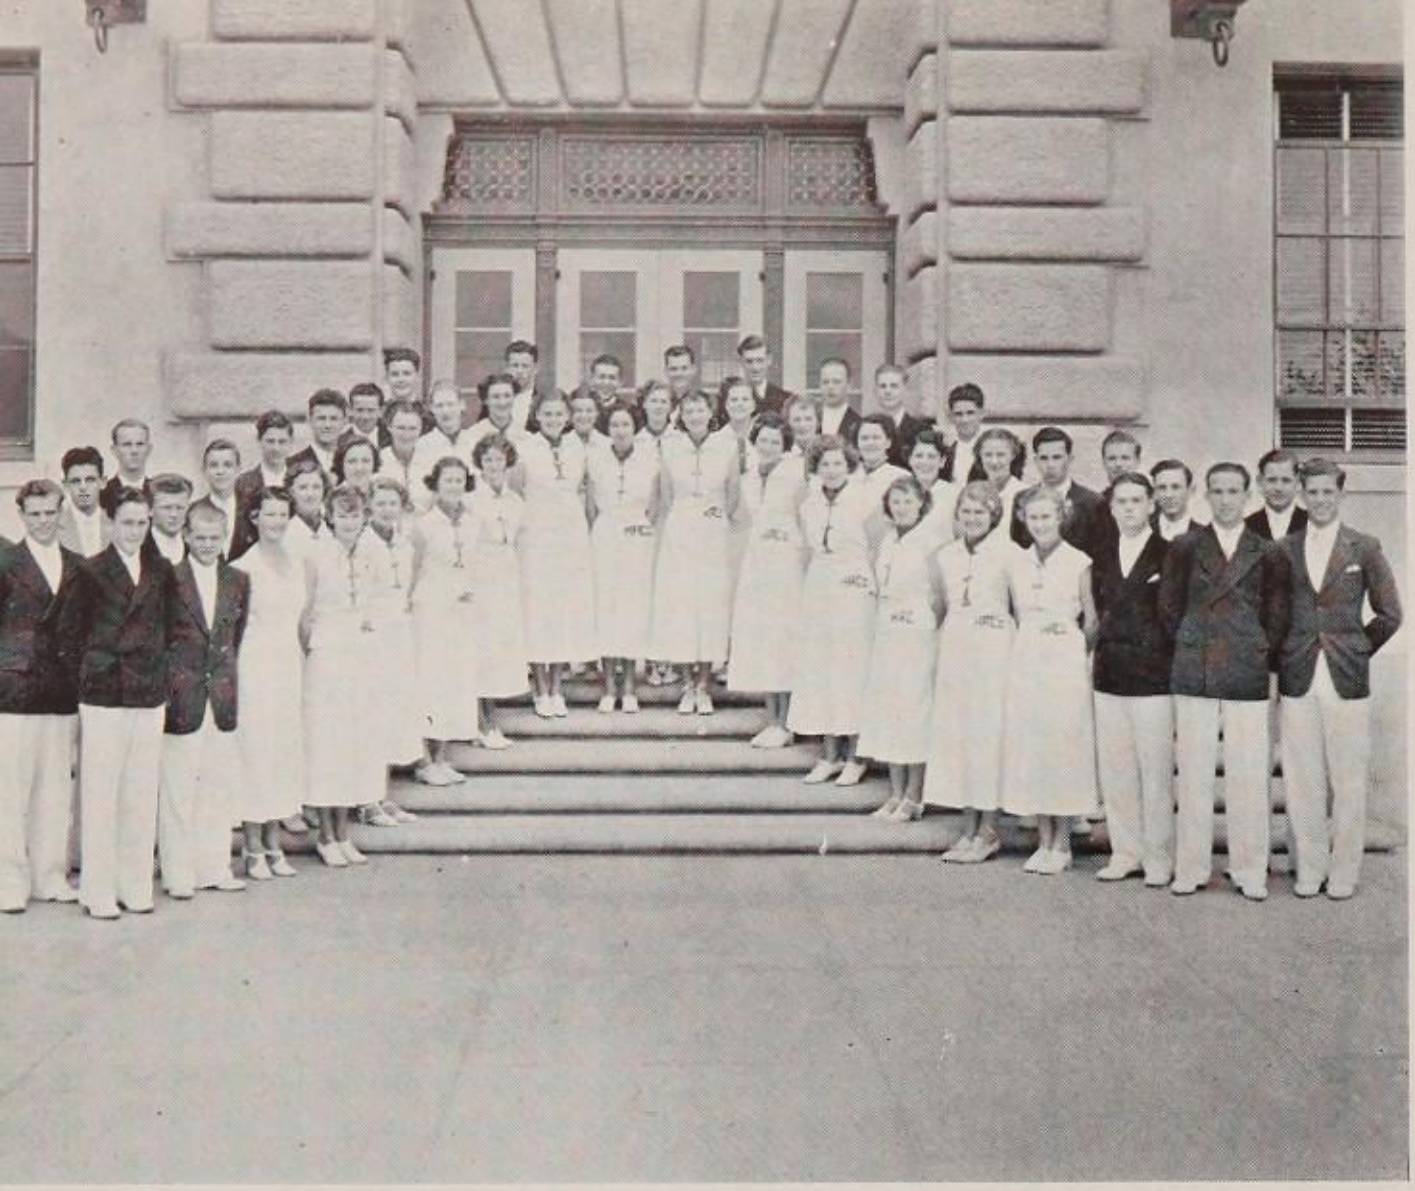
Second row: Kinsey, Gilbert, Cerveny, Gay, Anderson, Hunter, Wilson, Carroll.
Third row: Richardson, Rowe, Neilson, Rochefort, Dibb, McLees, Hendel, Farris.
Fourth row: Rader, Bodie, Daniel, Johnston, Day, Tazelaar, Crawford, Nicholas, Oliver.
Fifth row: Lindem, H. Jordan, Bullock, R. Jordan, Robbins, Reed, Stavall, Jones, Krumholz, Schaaf.

NO LESS THAN TRULY REMARKABLE has been the growth and increasing prominence of all the classes in the vocal music department during the past year. One, the Boys' Glee Club, has represented Hoover in a wide range of programs presented continuously throughout two semesters, entailing arduous practice in the work of preparation, for the boys must be in readiness at all times in anticipation of invitations to sing before any number of civic and private clubs.

The Boys' Glee Club experienced a novel treat when it sang over station KGB. Another unusually fine entertainment was contributed to by the Glee Club when the boys sang at a beautiful Christmas musical fete given at three performances for the school and the public. With the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club and the A Capella Choir made the program the unusual success that it was.

Other than the Christmas concert, the Boys' Glee Club sang in engagements before the Elks' Club at the rally banquet preceding the Hoover-San Diego football game. Later, they appeared on the Open House program at the school, November tenth. Also, in the fall they made an appearance in the Russ auditorium at the annual Teachers' Institute sessions. Still later, they presented a program at Horace Mann Junior High School, and at the P.-T. A. district meeting held at Balboa Park. On February third the boys sang at the baccalaureate exercises at State College.



A CAPELLA CHOIR

Second row: Boegeman, Martin, Bousman, Thatch, Sharpe, Buchenau, Zeldin, Crosier, Henry, Skanse, Markle, Aiken, Gates, Wright, Wiese, Peace, Romaine.
Third row: Pecker, Hack, Robbins, Becker, Jenkins, Nauman,, Lange, Stanley, Foote, Richmond, Tenney, Kirk, Hausman, Rowe, Greville, Lindem, Kibler.

PERHAPS THE PRINCIPAL member of the vocal music department is the group of mixed voices known formerly as the Choral Club. However, in order to distinguish it from other groups of a similar type in San Diego, the name was changed, and it is now known as the A Capella Choir.

During the Christmas season, on an exceptional vocal program, the A Capella Choir, dressed in robes of red and white, lent added impressiveness to the ceremony both with its appearance and fine singing.

During the fall semester the Choir sang at Open House on November eleventh. In addition to this and similar other programs at Hoover, the Choir sang before the East San Diego Kiwanis Club, the Asbury M. E. Church, and as an innovation, over station KGB. Later, it sang at the annual City-County Teachers' Institute sessions. It also performed in Balboa Park for the P.-T. A., at Horace Mann Junior High School, at the Brooklyn Heights Presbyterian Church, and before the Teachers' Association. It took part in the caroling program, sang at the San Diego Women's Club, at St. James Church in La Jolla, before the Breakfast Club, and at the Vesper services at the First Baptist Church.

For the greater part of the spring semester the choir practiced for the Southern California Festival of Allied Arts, where it was awarded a rating of "Excellent."

BOYS' QUARTETTE

SINGING FOR THE SCHOOL and for civic organizations, the Hoover Boys' Quartette has appeared on seventy programs during the year. Members and alternates for the year: First tenors: Boegeman, Krutzsch, Martin; second tenors: Davies, Nauman, Richmond; baritones: Stanley, Nicholas, Peace; basses: Romaine, Severin.

ASIDE FROM ASSISTING with the Senior and Alumni plays, the Drama Club produced "Romance Is A Racket" for Open House, "The Bellamy Trial," a Christmas program, and a road show given at Pt. Loma. The loss of the auditorium curtailed the usual heavy Drama Club production program.

DRAMA CLUB

Second row: Wiese, Hubbard, Mellick, Cupples.
Third row: Granville, Mr. C. Gerald Hasty, Edwards, Knapp.
Other members of the Drama Club not included in the picture: Connie Fraser, Orval Faulkner, and Woodrow Wangsness.

CARDINAL BAND

First Row, front to back: Root, Richmond, Hill, Easterly, W. Vahle, Abendroth, Clamp, McCullum, Chevillon, Hobbs.
Second Row: Reinhert, Hall, Ferree, Schiefer, Kickbush, D. Vahle, Funk, Rankin.
Third Row: M. Martin, Cowan, Homesley, Doerck, Glenn, Siegal, Gray, W. Davis, Earles, V. Davis.
Fourth Row: Gleason, Wetzell, Wolley, Terrill, Bibee, Torrence, Garoutte, Hack.
Fifth Row: Heimroth, Lewis, R. Martin, Guelke, Grant, Jenkins, Diamond, Hana, Jacobs, Hickey.

OCTOBER 16, 1936, the Herbert Hoover High School Cardinal Band in new uniforms marched on the field setting the tempo for a very worthwhile year. It is the duty and the purpose of each bandsman to bring honor to the school, to the community, to themselves, both as musicians and democratic citizens. One day a week strains of martial music are heard on the school drill field as the cadence is set for the Hoover R.O.T.C. units, thus giving the R.O.T.C. members an opportunity to march to music, while at the same time the band members receive the benefit and privilege of cooperating with another of Hoover's organizations.

Fourth row: Homesley, Moyer, Palmer, Clapper, Read, Day.

THE HERBERT HOOVER Senior High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Close, gives a direct apprenticeship to a musical career. In actual practice the members learn the fundamental requirements of working in a symphony, with the expressed desire of becoming a professional musician.

During their high school course of three years, they read representative scores of the masters. Each year a concert is given to allow the students to apply again in actual practice what they hope to continue as a profession.

Students of more than usual ability and interest are offered an opportunity to demonstrate their talent in outstanding solo compositions in concert work each year. To illustrate that the training offered at Hoover is beneficial in a practical sense, many former Hoover students have secured positions in professional orchestras, in colleges of music, and in a teaching capacity throughout the United States.

There are students who desire to study music, not with the consideration of a musical career, but as a cultural activity. Their attendance in the orchestra is welcomed; however, their constant interest and attention are strictly demanded.

The Senior Orchestra plays for graduation twice each year; smaller ensembles are also selected from the group to meet the demands of civic organizations and appear frequently. In the line of social functions the members of the group have a banquet yearly to initiate new members.

Third row: Sharpe, Parrott, Emmett, Bennett, La Madrid, Jackson, Finley, B. Taylor, D. Anderson, Bailey, H. Jacobson.

RARELY IS IT THAT ANY CLUB, the prime motive of which is service, is able to combine business with pleasure in such harmonious accord as is usually found in the activities of the Scholarship Society. The members realize that a club organized to aid students must make itself known to the school in such a way that those wishing to join will vie for membership.

In combining service with pleasure, members from neighboring towns, counties, and distant points in the state unite as often as possible in an effort to better coordinate the wide-spread chapters, learn more definitely how other chapters carry on, and to elect state officers.

However, never at any time do the visitors of these meetings lose sight of their fundamental purpose: to encourage scholarship toward a profitable result. Thus the influence of the C. S. F. is widened, so that each year added numbers of students are offered opportunities to attend outstanding universities by means of a scholarship.

As an award for four semesters of membership in the C. S. F., gold pins are presented each semester. Candidates for pins this semester are: Harriet Anderson, Madeline Baxter, Dolores Bennett, Catherine Hess, Wanda Kazmarek, Reyna La Madrid, Ethel Martinette, Everett Pecker, Patience Noecker, Marcelle Schoell, and Mildred Thomas. Senior A's wearing pins are: Virginia Lee Allsworth, Frank Bonham, Katherine Good, Helen Jacobsen, Seymour Ratner, Robert Routh, Barbara Taylor, Mary Frances Wing, and Nelle Wing. The life member is William Guenther.

THE QUILL AND SCROLL, an international organization of journalists, have as officers this semester: Dolores Bennett, president; Madeline Baxter, vice-president; Lois Steimke, secretary; Edith Adamson, treasurer; Bower Forbes, reporter; and Mrs. Cynthia Copeland, adviser. Their activities this semester included participation in the Quill and Scroll county banquet.

THIS STAFF, under the supervision of the late Frank B. Doyle, enlarged the Cardinal from a four to a six column paper. In charge are: Dolores Bennett, editor-in-chief; Madeline Baxter, news; Marian Frank, features; Tom Boyle, sports; Ruth Farthing, business; Mrs. Cynthia Copeland, adviser; and Robert I. Second row: G. Forbes, Edwards, Ricketts, Dougherty, Herty.
Third Row: Biedebach, Alberty, Proctor, Weir, Coover, Cowan.

THE HI-Y IS AN ORGANIZATION which, by means of a long list of noteworthy activities, has kept itself in the foreground; and one which, because of its exemplary service, holds a foremost position among the clubs and service organizations at Hoover. Posters and placards have been prominently displayed in all of the outstanding localities in the school reminding all who read of the aims of this service club: clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living.

One of the factors greatly responsible for the continued interest and attention centered in the Hi-Y is the wide round of activities with which it engages itself. The school and the members of the Hi-Y are constantly aware that this is definitely an ever-growing club. Included among those activities of this year were a trip to Camp Marston during Easter vacation, a skating party on April twenty-sixth, as well as one held previously this year. What organization would consider its fun complete without a beach party such as the one enjoyed by the members of the Hi-Y on the evening of May twenty-sixth at La Jolla? The members of the Point Loma Hi-Y and the Hoover club partook of a banquet together.

In addition, this club presented a plaque to the season's outstanding track athlete. With activities such as these as examples of the type of services and pleasures participated in by the members of the Hi-Y, it is clear that their purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character," will never escape the notice of Hoover students.

Fifth row: Sharp, Kershaw, Sanford, Dye, McFarland, Jackson, Payne, Holland, Duncan, Kobusch, Myers, Kobusch.

ONE OF HOOVER'S club organizations of an exceptionally large membership is the Hoover Girl Reserve Club.

The officers for the last semester were: President, Sarah Taylor; vice-president, Helen Mae Butcher; secretary, Margaret Swope; treasurer, Velma June Meyers; council-program, Marguerite Sharpe; service, Mary Carroll; social, Mildred Larson; activities, Alice Lobrano; publicity, Shirley Hardin; music, Beverly Donovan; inter-club-ring, June Riechers; reporter, Phyllis Baldwin; sophomore representative, Mary Miller.

This semester's officers are: President, Margaret Swope; vice-president, Pat Powers; secretary, Peggy Heron; treasurer, Mary Ellen Jackson; council-program, Helen Mae Butcher; service, Mary Lou Powell; social, Mary Carroll; publicity, Esther Kobusch; music, Marguerite Sharpe; activities, Mildred Larson; reporter, Barbara Collins; inter-club-ring, Velma June Meyers; sophomore representative, Mildred Dubbert.

A great measure of the success in service and pleasure activities is attributed to the interest and encouragement of the advisers and the Y. W. C. A. secretary, Miss Dillon. The faculty adviser is Miss Dagny Ingrebritson.

Last semester's pleasurable social functions included: a hayride, a Christmas party, and caroling. Those for this semester were: the Pa, Ma, an' Me banquet, a fashion show, a box social, and a hayride.

HOOVER SENATORS

Second row: Cook, Irick, Guenther, Miss Ethel M. DeVol, Adair, Reid.
Third row: Sexton, Bell, Cupples, Newmark, Jacobsen.
Fourth row: Myers, Coburn, Hays, Fay, Haddock, Dearborn.

THE HOOVER SENATORS make up a highly successful extemporaneous speech and debate club coached by Miss Ethel De Vol, under the direction of President Ray Adair with Ruth Jenkins, secretary; Bill Guenther, librarian; Joe Irick, treasurer; Bill Clamp, publicity; Lois Swanson, parliamentarian; Fern Carroll, social chairman.

THE BALLYHOO CLUB, Hoover publicity organ, was reorganized during the spring semester, sponsored by Mrs. Sorkness. Officers are: Jean Carmody, Jack Salyers, and Jack Boyer. The club has successfully accomplished its purpose of letting the public know what Hoover High is up to.

Third row: Pecker, Suchy Hess, Fay, Hom, Larson, Henshaw, Nauman.
Fourth row: Martin, Thornton, Chase, Lyle, Ratner, Abendroth.

THE MOST RECENTLY formed organization at Hoover, and yet already one of the most outstanding, is the World Friendship Club, sponsored by Mrs. Helen Bankerd. The World Friendship Club, since its formation in early January, has played a prominent part in school affairs and is well known and respected among the students.

At present, its officers are: President, Peggy Fay; vice-president, Jimmy Lyle; secretary, Helen Crosier; treasurer, Russell Martin; publicity agent, Dolores Bennett.

The committees are: Program committee, with Jimmy Lyle as chairman; social committee, with Dean Nauman as chairman; and the music committee, with Leland Nicholas as director.

On Saturday, May fifteenth, the state convention of High School World Friendship Clubs was held at San Pedro, when all who attended were royally entertained in a widely varied day's program which included: dancing, motion pictures of previous conventions, and sight-seeing excursions about the harbor, a visit aboard a trans-Pacific liner, and an auto trip to the Palos Verdes Hills.

More important, however, were the panel discussions in which particular students were chosen to take the affirmative or negative side in debates on topics particularly pertinent to situations involving world peace today. William Guenther represented the Hoover World Friendship Club, upholding the affirmative on the topic: "President Roosevelt Should Call Another Washington Conference."

DURING THE PAST YEAR more attention than ever before has been brought to bear upon the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. In consequence of this awakened interest, the R. O. T. C. has assumed a more prominent position in school affairs. Its aid is of exceptional value because of the marvelous training it offers to high school boys in regard to discipline, character building, and in numberless other respects. Hoover boys are anxious for an opportunity to become R. O. T. C. members and to participate in its training activities. Their interest is keenly and sincerely felt, for once a member, they desire to live up to the R. O. T. C. standards.

This rising interest has been expressed in the way that the boys have taken advantage of their training and developed a unit that was this year highly commended by the reserve officers for its excellent training, attitude, and discipline. In addition, the Hoover unit as a whole has a wider knowledge of field activities than ever before, a knowledge that was broadened by both theory and practice. This last year the Hoover unit went before the Federal Inspector better prepared than ever before.

Another activity which has aided in the marching of the unit has been the presence of the Cardinal band, making it possible to hold a

The officers for the spring semester were: Colonel Robert Routh, Captain John Couvrette, Captain James Lyle, Captain Bower Forbes, First Lieutenant James Richmond, Second Lieutenant Jack Baker, Second Lieutenant Carroll Wight, Second Lieutenant William Bell, Second Lieutenant Russell Martin, Second Lieutenant Jim Sheridan.

There are now two companies in place of the former one, Company "F" having been formed in the fall semester. Likewise, in the fall semester, "The Saber," an officer's club, was inaugurated as a new feature. The R. O. T. C. rifle team shot twelfth place in the Hearst Trophy match. Robert Routh was made Colonel, receiving his saber in a colorful ceremony, and is now in command of all San Diego R. O. T. C. units.

A larger unit than ever before is anticipated to turn out next semester, "The Saber," an officers' club, was inaugurated as a new feature. The Hoover unit, for the past two years, has been directed by Second Lieutenant Spellmeyer, who is highly esteemed by all of the boys who come under his guidance.

HOOVER IS PROUD of its newly organized golf team, which has made an admirable record throughout the state in competition with other schools. Most of their success is due to the excellent coaching of Mr. Lambert. The golf team consists of eight men.

DIAS CARDINALES

THE 1937 ISSUE of "Dias Cardinales" was planned for and worked for with every member of the staff motivated by the desire that it should be the finest publication of any to have come from Hoover. Each feature between the finely-styled covers was to be the best that the efforts of the staff could conceive.

Chet Dipple was selected as Art Editor and was capably aided by Marion Drebert and Muriel Rafferty. They both worked under the guidance of Miss Anne Grogan, whose assistance made the art work so fine.

Mrs. Goodwin of the English department has been indispensable in criticizing the editorial work. Mrs. Hamilton of the Commercial department, senior adviser, aided in the financial arrangements.

Robert Routh was Managing Editor, under whose direction the staff worked. Bower Forbes was Business Manager; Barbara Baker, the February Editor, and Barbara Howley, Assistant February Editor; Katherine Good was the June Editor, Phyllis Gillett, Assistant June Editor, while Shirley Markle was responsible for the roster.

Those girls who helped with the clerical work were: Marilyn Lacey, Dorothy Drouillard, Marjorie Higgins, Clara Shook, Eugenia Sperry, Elizabeth Hobbs, Dollie Slater, Nelle Wing, Mary Wing, and Marie Kallander. However, most credit belongs to Miss Kokanour, who has kept the staff constantly at its duties.

It is the fondest wish of all staff members that the 1937 "Dias Cardinales" will be to the complete satisfaction of every Hoover High School student.

APPRECIATION

The members of the "Dias Cardinales" staff extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Hal Brucker and his associates at Neyenesch Printers, Inc. for the printing of this annual, to Mr. Cliff Nichols for its photography, to the Babcock Cover Co., for its cover, and to the Sunset Engravers for its engraving.

Without their splendid cooperation and aid the "Dias Cardinales" staff would have been helpless.

To them, again a vote of thanks.
